

Career Planning

Howard Raynor

TMA Frontline

Birmingham, 13 June 2007

Overview

- What is possible?
- How did I get here?
- How do I connect to my career?
- How do I get a handle on the opportunities?
- Moments of Truth in a career
- What's in the workshop

What is possible?

- Front of House
- Box Office
- Marketing
- General Management
- Festival Projects
- Hospitality
- City Arts Dept
- Business Development
- Project Co-ordination
- Events Management
- Sport
- Other Arts channels
- Tourism
- Overseas
- Self employed or freelance
- Facility Management

How did I get here?

- Genes
- Parents
- Where you grew up
- Personal choice

It is a choice

Your

Choice

How do I connect to my career?

- What are your personal achievements? What are you proud of? This is the home of self reliance.
- What are your personal goals?
 - What do you want to have materially
 - What do you want to do - activity
 - What do you want to be - personal principles
- What are you inspired by?
- What are you particularly good at?
- Write it down

How do I get a handle on the opportunities

- Front of House tribe
- Cost efficiency vs value addition business
- See the bigger picture - hotels, sport, arena's, retail - this is the experience economy
- Watch for trends - its never been easier
- Be determined about where you stand
- Don't be afraid to ask.

Moments of Truth in a Career

- Apply for jobs
- Talk to someone you trust
- Read everything in sight
- Don't accept the status quo
- Take risks
- Go see
- Beg, sell, borrow for a qualification
- Get headhunted
- Think outside the sector, meet outside the sector
- Take more risks
- Grow the business
- Start a business

Where are the Bridges?

- Current business “Performance Review” or Appraisal.
- Personal career planning
- Personal decision in the face of opportunity
- Training
- Management and Leadership Programmes
- Skills development in the workforce
- Professional membership
- Event Planning/Sales
- IT systems training

What's in the workshop

- Business career planning
- Personal career Planning
 - Personal qualities
 - Personal skills
 - Building your CV by adding value
- Your Team
 - How successful people succeed

Thank You